Hearing dated : 19.03.2024

DAILY ORDER

Thiru.M.A.Mudimannan, Advocate appeared for the petitioner. Tvl. N.Kumanan & A.P.Venkatachalapathy, Standing Counsel for the respondent, TANGEDCO appeared and sought time for filing counter. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the core issue involved in the present case (viz) whether waiver of transmission and wheeling charges have to be allowed for the Covid 19 period, stand resolved by the Commission in its earlier orders and as such absolutely there is no justification on the part of the respondent in seeking repeated adjournments for filing counter affidavit. Records disclose that more than sufficient opportunity had already been afforded to the respondent to file counter affidavit but the respondent has not availed the same. Considering the nature and amplitude of the issue involved in the case, this Commission opines that granting further adjournment would be a travesty of justice and decides to dispose of the case with available records. Brief arguments of the petitioner's counsel heard. Orders reserved.
